

COLOURISE

CELEBRATING THE GATHERING SPIRIT

You Are Here

COLOURISE FESTIVAL 2007

A UNIQUE INDIGENOUS SCREEN CULTURE

CINEMA AlterNATIVE

Tuesday 10 - Friday 13 July 2007

The Coffee Club

209 Boundary Street West End
Ph: 07 3846 7233

9am, 12pm & 3pm

Avid Reader

193 Boundary Street West End
Ph: 07 3846 3422

9am, 12pm & 3pm
(or by request)

Tognini's, The Library Shop

State Library Queensland South Bank
Ph: 07 3840 7546/ 07 3840 7576

9am, 12pm & 3pm
(or by request)

Seagrass

220 Melbourne Street South Brisbane
Ph: 07 3844 8811

12pm & 6pm

ON SCREEN:

From the Australian Film Commission's Black Screen program

My Brother Vinnie

25min: 2006

Aaron and Vinnie Pederson are two brothers who have been each other's shadow. Aaron has established a successful career as an actor, all the while being responsible for the care of Vinnie who has mild intellectual disabilities and cerebral palsy. My Brother Vinnie intimately explores a relationship full of humour and charm. The characters will touch you with their wit and honesty.

Dir: Steven McGregor

Prod: Sarah Bond

Footy The La Perouse Way

25min: 2006

The story of a small Aboriginal community located in bustling multicultural Sydney. It is the journey of a community, whose beginnings were marked by racial division and the suffering it brought, and its embracing of football as a starting point to put these historic differences behind it. Forging what has now become, a unique and prosperous mix of black and white cultures, working together side-by-side in all aspects of life, with respect, honour, integrity and trust.

Dir: Michael Longbottom

Island Fettlers

25 min: 2006

In the late 1960's, Torres Strait Islander men made the epic journey to the Pilbara in Western Australia to build railways between remote mines in the desert and ports on the coast. Tom Saylor was one of the first wave of island fettlers; both he and his son Thomas have waited over 25 years to embark on a cultural pilgrimage back to the islands to reconnect, to reconcile, and to ultimately realise just what it means to be from the Torres Strait.

Dir: Kelrick Martin

For more information:

0422 228 621 Holly Smith

50 years of NAIDOC & 40(000) years of citizenship

Looking Forward Looking Blak

SUNDAY 8 JULY - SATURDAY 14 JULY 2007

EVENTS SUITABLE FOR ALL AGES