

MONDAY 13TH - FRIDAY 17TH OCTOBER 2014

'Significant meaning and power resides in the notion of Place through continual enactment of protocols, ritual and ceremony.
Such a respectful relationship with both Land and Place is a guide for human relationship and social structure.'
Mary Graham 2013

COLOURISE FESTIVAL 2014 :eARTh - renewal

Walk with us in Turrbal country through the streets of Brisbane to creAct contemporary ceremonies re-imagining a city through Indigenous eyes, and gather for screenings that inspire our imaginings. Join us to 're-dream' the land, care for country, care for kin.

SCREENINGS

13, 14 October 5.30-7.30pm - Kuril Dhagun, State Library Qld, South Brisbane
in collaboration with cyerTribe's SOLID SCREEN www.solidscreen.com.au

WALKS

15, 16 October 5.30-8.30pm - Musgrave Pk. South Brisbane to inner city
SCREENING

17 October 6-8pm - Queen St Mall (high screen near entrance to Myer Centre) in collaboration with imagineNATIVE Film and Media Art Festival, Toronto, Canada
www.imagenative.org

Proudly supported by

Dedicated to a better Brisbane

A CULTURAL SIGNATURE OF UNIKUP PRODUCTIONS LTD

original. indigenous.

Program details posted soon on facebook.com/events/746183145438855/
and www.colourise.com.au

See us at www.facebook.com/groups/colourise/ colourise@colourise.com.au MOB: 0407 379 822