

WEAVING BASKETS & SCREEN STORIES

'Significant meaning and power resides in the notion of Place through continual enactment of protocols, ritual and ceremony. Such a respectful relationship with both Land and Place is a guide for human relationship and social structure.'

Mary Graham 2013

COLOURISE FESTIVAL

:eARTh - renewal

Mon 13 October 5.30-7.30pm - Kuril Dhagun State Library Qld Sth Brisbane
WEAVING BASKETS & SCREEN STORIES

A women's gathering with basket weaving, good conversation and a unique International selection of Indigenous women's short screenworks: The Ab-sorption Method, A Lot of Lost Survivors, Wakening, Good Medicine, Target Girls, Native in Nuhaka, Unpacking the White Man, Bachelors of Batchelor, Three Poems by Heid E. Erdrich, Snare with Row and X-Pek.

FOLLOWED BY

SCREENING: Tues 14 October 5.30-7.30pm - Kuril Dhagun State Library Qld Sth Brisbane

WALKS: Wed 15, Thurs 16 October 5.30-8.30pm - Musgrave Pk. South Brisbane to inner city

SCREENING: Fri 17 October 6-8pm - Queen St Mall (high screen near entrance to Myer Centre)

Program details posted facebook.com/events/746183145438855/

and www.colourise.com.au

Dedicated to a better Brisbane

See us at www.facebook.com/groups/colourise/ colourise@colourise.com.au MOB: 0407 379 822